

Are You the NEXT LEAD SINGER for the Greatest Party Band in the Capital District???

competition hosted by The Dublin Underground, FLY 92FM and Rockwell Productions

Are you a versatile lead singer eager for the opportunity to front a successful, professional show band? Do you have the vocal chops and the showmanship to entertain the masses? If so this is the chance of a lifetime for you!!! IMI's been entertaining regional audiences for years, opened for multiple national acts, toured the east coast and performed countless times for Fly92 and the Dublin Underground. Unfortunately, their lead singer needed to move out of state- creating an amazing opportunity for one talented singer.....

This is a competition for serious vocalists only (comedians need not apply & will be immediately pulled from the stage)... Live auditions will be held Thursday nights starting 8pm, September 23 at Savannah's Dublin Underground (1 So. Pearl St, Albany). If you have what it takes, pick one song from each style below (only choose an artist once) & be prepared to bring your 'A Game'. This will be a judged event and audience participation will be a factor, so bring your cheering section. If you have what it takes you may be well on your way to a successful music career!
